

Organizers' Remarks ...

Ontology Summit 2011

Mark Musen
Stanford University
musen@stanford.edu

NATIONAL CENTER FOR

BIOMEDICAL ONTOLOGY

National Center for Biomedical Ontology

- The NCBO's mission is to develop computational infrastructure for the management, dissemination, and application of ontologies in biomedicine
- General issues in computational ontology are important in the biomedical domain
- Since their inception, the ontology summits have addressed issues of central importance to NCBO
- Measuring the value proposition of ontologies in biomedicine continues to be an important goal

